    3. The primary role of the service provider in early intervention is to work with and support the family members and caregivers in a child's life.

    4. The early intervention process, from initial contacts through to transition, must be dynamic and individualised to reflect the child's and family members' preferences, learning styles and cultural beliefs.

5. Individual Family Service Plan outcomes must be functional and based on children's and families' needs and priorities.

6. The family's priorities, needs and interests are addressed most appropriately by a primary provider who represents and receives team and community support.
