Feedback, Complaints & Compliments

Your voice matters to us. This brochure explains how you can share feedback, make a complaint, or give a compliment.

"We are committed to providing the best possible support. Your feedback helps us grow and improve."

What is this brochure about?

At One Life Foundation, we believe every person we support has the right to speak up. Whether you want to tell us something is going well, suggest an improvement, or raise a concern — we want to hear from you.

This brochure is written in easy-to-understand language so that participants, families, and carers can feel confident about sharing their thoughts with us.

Feedback

A suggestion or idea to help us do better.

Complaint

Something you are unhappy about that you want fixed.

Compliment

Something positive you want to share about our service.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Share your views about the services you receive
- Make a complaint without fear of it affecting your support
- Have someone help you (an advocate, family member, or friend)
- Be treated with respect and have your concerns taken seriously
- Receive a response within a fair and reasonable time
- Remain anonymous if you choose

How to Give Feedback or Make a Complaint

You can share your feedback in whatever way is easiest for you:

1. Talk to us
   Speak to your support worker, team leader, or any staff member you feel comfortable with. They will listen and help.

2. Phone us
   Call One Life Foundation on 1300 XXX XXX during business hours (Mon-Fri, 9am-5pm). Ask for the manager if needed.

3. Email us
   Send an email to admin@olfndisservices.com.au with the subject "Feedback" or "Complaint". We will respond within 3 business days.

4. Write to us
   Fill in the Feedback Form (available from any staff member or on our website) and hand it in or post it to our office.

5. Use an advocate
   If you need help, you can ask a family member, friend, or an independent advocate to speak on your behalf.

What Happens After You Tell Us?

Step	What We Do	Timeframe
1. Acknowledge	We confirm we received your feedback or complaint.	Within 2 business days
2. Review	We look into the matter and gather information.	Within 5 business days
3. Respond	We contact you with what we found and what we will do.	Within 10 business days
4. Action	We make changes or improvements based on your feedback.	As agreed
5. Follow Up	We check in with you to make sure you are satisfied.	Within 2 weeks

Not Happy With the Outcome?

If you are not satisfied with how we handled your complaint, you can contact the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission. They are an independent government body that protects the rights of NDIS participants.

Want to Say Thank You?

We love hearing when something goes well! If a support worker or team member has made a difference in your life, please let us know. Compliments help us recognise our staff and continue delivering great support.

You can share a compliment the same way as feedback — just tell us, call, email, or fill in a form. We will make sure the right person hears your kind words.
